

SAFFRON WALDEN NEWS

SAFFRON WALDEN SCHOOL OF MOTORING (Registered). Phone 3158. Driving Tuition 8 a.m.-7 p.m.

NEWLAND SCHOOL OF MOTORING (Reed.). Expert Tuition. Hours 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Book your Taxi-Day or Night -1st Saffron Walden and W.O. FETE AT FARMADINE. July 11th Parade of Elizabethan Costumes, 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes. Entries to Mrs. Custerson, Farmadine, Saffron Walden.

Hospital Gifts.—Rosemary Walker, silver paper; Mrs. Leak, tinfoil; Mrs. Reeves, tinfoil; Mr. Stanley Wilson, spring onions; and Mrs. Custerson, lettuce.

Co-op Dance.—About 140 dancers attended a dance held on Saturday in the Town Hall by the Women's Co-operative Guild. Mr. and Mrs. J. Moran were M.C.s and music was supplied by Harry Radley's band.

Comrades' Whist.—Winners at the weekly whist drive at the Comrades' Club were: Ladies—1 Mrs. Wynn, 2 Mrs. Low, 3 Mrs. Mizen; high first half—Mrs. Farnham; high second half—Mrs. Davison; high last three hands—Mrs. Andrews; gents—1 Mr. S. Mayon, 2 Mrs. Wells 3 Mrs. Ward; high first half—Mrs. Stalley; high second half—Mr. Cates; high last three hands—Mrs. Lacey.

British Legion Whist.—Winners at a whist drive held in the Central Hall on Saturday and organised by the Women's Section of the British Legion were: Ladies—1 Mrs. Green, 2 Miss Robins, highest half Mrs. Bird, lowest Mrs. Litton; gentlemen—1 Mrs. Andrews, 2 Mr. Harris, highest half Mrs. A. Johnsin, lowest Mrs. Pike. Competition won by Mrs. Porter. Mr. Dennis was M.C.

Women's Conservative Association.—A most pleasant afternoon was spent last Thursday in Mrs. Osborne's garden at "The Retreat", Little Walden Road. The weather was ideal and members enjoyed playing whist in this delightful country garden. Tea was served by members of the committee. Prizewinners were: Ladies—1 Mrs. McMeekan 2 Mrs. Medes; highest half—Mrs. Wallis; gents—1 Mrs. Martin, 2 Mr. Dart; highest half—Mrs. Wright; highest score—Mrs. C. M. Wright. Mrs. Parish was M.C.

Methodist Church Sunday School.—Very successful anniversary services were held on Sunday. The morning service was conducted by the Supt. Minister (the Rev. L. Picken), who spoke of the importance of starting at the beginning. The children took a prominent part in the service in special singing. The afternoon was taken up by the rendering of a song service entitled, "Lights along the Shore," this proved very interesting all the scholars taking part. Pastor W. Jinks conducted the service. The evening service, which was also conducted by Pastor W. Jinks, took the form of a great musical festival. The scholars and choir excelled with the selected hymns and duets and solos were given by the scholars alone. The anthem, "At even 'ere the sun was set," by John S. Witty was very ably rendered by the choir. There were good congregations at all services. Special mention and thanks should be made to Mr. Derek Dyer who was responsible for the building of the light-house which was in the afternoon's service.

Coronation Party.—Children from East Street, Fairgrove Road, Audley Road, top of High Street, London Road, Deben Road (to bridge), Station Street and Road (to bridge), Alpha Place and Artisans Dwelling attended a Coronation party at "Farmadine" (by kind permission of Ald. and Mrs. Custerson) on Saturday. Over 90 children enjoyed a sumptuous tea. An apple, orange and chocolate, tea cakes were given to each child, together with a present. There were sports for prizes and the Army Cadet Force band gave a colourful display. S/Major F. White entertained with his piano-accordion. The Last Post was sounded as a mark of respect to the late Mayor. Mrs. Custerson was presented with a Victorian posy by Jennifer D'Arcy, and Rosemary Downham presented a Bible to Mrs. Custerson for her granddaughter, suitably inscribed. The present was from all the boys and girls. A letter of thanks has since been received in her own hand. Thanks were extended to all tradespeople and others who had helped make the party a success. Over £20 was raised. The committee responsible comprised: Mesdames Downham, Studd, Bowers, Drane, Underwood, Dixon and Pless. On behalf of the committee Mrs. Bowers presented the organiser, Mrs. Florence Green, with a brooch.

The Late Mr. C. E. Housden.—The funeral took place on Tuesday week of Mr. Cecil Edgar Housden, who died at his home, 6, West Field, West Road. Mr. Housden, who was 64 years of age, was the second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Housden, of Peaslands Road, Saffron Walden. He was, for many years, a well-known farmer. The funeral service, at High Street Baptist Church, was conducted by the Rev. G. W. Sharman, with Mr. Anthony at the organ. During the service the hymn "How Sweet the Name of Jesus Sounds" was sung, and "O Rest in the Lord" was played as the cortege left the church for the interment, which followed at the Borough Cemetery. Family mourners were: Mrs. C. Housden (widow), Mr. Bennett Housden (son), Mrs. Stuart (daughter), Mr. J. G.