

Mansion House.—James Murray, a labourer, was charged before the Lord Mayor with being in the unlawful possession of a quantity of tin and with the use of a dangerous weapon. The tin was found in the possession of the prisoner, who was charged with using it to strike the prisoner Lewis's boy on Friday, and with stopping him on suspicion, which proved to be the case. The tin was found in the possession of the prisoner, who was charged with using it to strike the prisoner Lewis's boy on Friday, and with stopping him on suspicion, which proved to be the case. The tin was found in the possession of the prisoner, who was charged with using it to strike the prisoner Lewis's boy on Friday, and with stopping him on suspicion, which proved to be the case.

Marionberry.—A powerfully-built man named Marionberry, a seaman, was charged on Saturday with being in the unlawful possession of a quantity of tin and with the use of a dangerous weapon. The tin was found in the possession of the prisoner, who was charged with using it to strike the prisoner Lewis's boy on Friday, and with stopping him on suspicion, which proved to be the case. The tin was found in the possession of the prisoner, who was charged with using it to strike the prisoner Lewis's boy on Friday, and with stopping him on suspicion, which proved to be the case.

Westminster.—Charles Bonner, nineteen, and George Sadler, eighteen, were charged with disorderly conduct on Saturday night. The prisoners were charged with being in the unlawful possession of a quantity of tin and with the use of a dangerous weapon. The tin was found in the possession of the prisoner, who was charged with using it to strike the prisoner Lewis's boy on Friday, and with stopping him on suspicion, which proved to be the case.

Clarenceville.—Samuel Davis, aged sixty years, of 7, Smith-place, Westminster, was charged with being in the unlawful possession of a quantity of tin and with the use of a dangerous weapon. The tin was found in the possession of the prisoner, who was charged with using it to strike the prisoner Lewis's boy on Friday, and with stopping him on suspicion, which proved to be the case. The tin was found in the possession of the prisoner, who was charged with using it to strike the prisoner Lewis's boy on Friday, and with stopping him on suspicion, which proved to be the case.

Thames.—Sarah Brock, a young woman, was charged before Mr. Lushington with attempting to commit suicide. On Saturday afternoon Samuel Sips, a married man, was charged with being in the unlawful possession of a quantity of tin and with the use of a dangerous weapon. The tin was found in the possession of the prisoner, who was charged with using it to strike the prisoner Lewis's boy on Friday, and with stopping him on suspicion, which proved to be the case.

Winney.—A hackney carriage driver, was charged on Saturday with demanding more than his legal fare and assaulting Mr. Thomas Jennings, living at 10, Grosvenor-place, Westminster. The driver was charged with using a dangerous weapon to strike the prisoner, who was charged with using it to strike the prisoner Lewis's boy on Friday, and with stopping him on suspicion, which proved to be the case.

Windsorworth.—The Rev. James Thompson was charged on Saturday with being in the unlawful possession of a quantity of tin and with the use of a dangerous weapon. The tin was found in the possession of the prisoner, who was charged with using it to strike the prisoner Lewis's boy on Friday, and with stopping him on suspicion, which proved to be the case.

Folsomville.—An emigrant, named John Dicks, residing at 10, Folsomville, was charged with being in the unlawful possession of a quantity of tin and with the use of a dangerous weapon. The tin was found in the possession of the prisoner, who was charged with using it to strike the prisoner Lewis's boy on Friday, and with stopping him on suspicion, which proved to be the case.

Wentworth.—A young man named Kenneth at Wentworth, was charged with being in the unlawful possession of a quantity of tin and with the use of a dangerous weapon. The tin was found in the possession of the prisoner, who was charged with using it to strike the prisoner Lewis's boy on Friday, and with stopping him on suspicion, which proved to be the case.

THE WALTHAMSTOWN TRAGEDY—SENTENCE OF DEATH.

At the Central Criminal Court, Friday, before Mr. Justice Day, William Goulstone, white-stuff, twenty-five, was indicted for the wilful murder of his wife, Frederick Goulstone, and two infants—at Walthamstow on the 8th ultimo. The prisoner, on being placed on the dock, said: "I am innocent of the crime, and I plead 'Not guilty' in a calm voice."

After a lengthy cross-examination of the witnesses, Mr. Justice Day, after a long and careful consideration of the evidence, pronounced the verdict of "Guilty." The prisoner, on being asked if he had anything to say in mitigation of his punishment, said: "I have nothing to say, but I beg pardon of my family and friends."

The learned judge then sentenced the prisoner to death. The prisoner, on being asked if he had anything to say in mitigation of his punishment, said: "I have nothing to say, but I beg pardon of my family and friends." The learned judge then sentenced the prisoner to death.

The prisoner, on being asked if he had anything to say in mitigation of his punishment, said: "I have nothing to say, but I beg pardon of my family and friends." The learned judge then sentenced the prisoner to death. The prisoner, on being asked if he had anything to say in mitigation of his punishment, said: "I have nothing to say, but I beg pardon of my family and friends."

The prisoner, on being asked if he had anything to say in mitigation of his punishment, said: "I have nothing to say, but I beg pardon of my family and friends." The learned judge then sentenced the prisoner to death. The prisoner, on being asked if he had anything to say in mitigation of his punishment, said: "I have nothing to say, but I beg pardon of my family and friends."

The prisoner, on being asked if he had anything to say in mitigation of his punishment, said: "I have nothing to say, but I beg pardon of my family and friends." The learned judge then sentenced the prisoner to death. The prisoner, on being asked if he had anything to say in mitigation of his punishment, said: "I have nothing to say, but I beg pardon of my family and friends."

The prisoner, on being asked if he had anything to say in mitigation of his punishment, said: "I have nothing to say, but I beg pardon of my family and friends." The learned judge then sentenced the prisoner to death. The prisoner, on being asked if he had anything to say in mitigation of his punishment, said: "I have nothing to say, but I beg pardon of my family and friends."

The prisoner, on being asked if he had anything to say in mitigation of his punishment, said: "I have nothing to say, but I beg pardon of my family and friends." The learned judge then sentenced the prisoner to death. The prisoner, on being asked if he had anything to say in mitigation of his punishment, said: "I have nothing to say, but I beg pardon of my family and friends."

The prisoner, on being asked if he had anything to say in mitigation of his punishment, said: "I have nothing to say, but I beg pardon of my family and friends." The learned judge then sentenced the prisoner to death. The prisoner, on being asked if he had anything to say in mitigation of his punishment, said: "I have nothing to say, but I beg pardon of my family and friends."

Odds and Ends.

At a recent public gathering in South Lambeth, a gentleman assured the audience that "those persons who had lost their lives in Ireland would certainly say that the policy of the Government was not the best policy that had been successful."

A philosopher who had married a vulgar girl to a countess, was asked, "What was the result?" He replied, "The countess was a vulgar girl, and the philosopher was a vulgar man."

A merchant in Berlin having fallen in love with an English girl, was asked, "What was the result?" He replied, "The girl was a merchant's daughter, and the merchant was a vulgar man."

A traveller returned from Patagonia remarking that the people there were "very much like the people of the old world, but they were not so much like the people of the old world."

An inquiring man thrust his fingers into a horse's mouth to see how many teeth it had, and the horse closed its mouth to see how many fingers the man had.

A soldier in the 1st Buffs, who was charged with neglecting to perform his task of work while on duty, was asked, "What was the result?" He replied, "The result was that the soldier was a soldier, and the 1st Buffs were the 1st Buffs."

A man who was charged with neglecting to perform his task of work while on duty, was asked, "What was the result?" He replied, "The result was that the man was a man, and the 1st Buffs were the 1st Buffs."

A man who was charged with neglecting to perform his task of work while on duty, was asked, "What was the result?" He replied, "The result was that the man was a man, and the 1st Buffs were the 1st Buffs."

A man who was charged with neglecting to perform his task of work while on duty, was asked, "What was the result?" He replied, "The result was that the man was a man, and the 1st Buffs were the 1st Buffs."

FATAL ACCIDENT AT A BREWERY.

On Friday morning, the body of a man named East, found an inquest at the London Hospital, on the body of William Tiltbrook, aged forty-nine, an Englishman, who was employed as a brewer. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident.

The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident.

The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident.

The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident.

The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident.

The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident.

The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident.

The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident.

The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident. The man was found dead in the brewery, and the cause of death was ascertained to be a fatal accident.

THE CENTRAL CRIMINAL COURT.

At the Central Criminal Court, Monday, before Mr. Justice Day, the case of the Central Criminal Court was heard. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime.

The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime.

The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime.

The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime.

The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime.

The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime.

The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime.

The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime.

The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime. The case was heard by Mr. Justice Day, and the result was that the prisoner was found guilty of the crime.

EVERYBODY'S COLUMN.

Turn poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars.

The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars.

The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars.

The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars.

The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars.

The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars.

The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars.

The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars.

The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars. The poultry prices of the United States last year amounted to value of 250,000,000 dollars.