Before ROBERT SIDNEY PAYNE, Gentleman, One of His Majesty's Coroners for the said County on view of the body of the said person then and there lying dead.

Kenneth Oswald Milne sworn and said:- I am a Medical Officer at Broadmoor Asylum. Deceased Wm Gouldstone aged 78 years at time of death was admitted here on 15th Dec 1883 from Chelmsford Prison. He lived formerly at 2 Helen Cottages, Queens Road, West Waltham, Essex: he was a married man & a blacksmith by occupation. He was charged with murder & was tried at C. Crim Court on Sept 10th 1883: found guilty & sentenced to death: the sentence was respited: on admission he was suffering from confusional insanity & later became demented. He has been in poor bodily health for the last six years: during the last 3 months, he gradually became weaker & died in the Infirmary on 19th Dec: at 12.5 am. A pm was made & showed the cause of death to be hypertrophic pressure & following myocardial degeneration.
